THE NEWSLETTER OF STAMFORD'S PUBLIC LIBRARY • NOVEMBER 2020

From the President's Desk

With COVID-19 cases ticking up statewide and locally, we all need to stay safe. Please know The Ferguson Library is here for you. If you are shy about coming into the building, curbside pickup is still available at all branches. When your reserved materials are ready, you can choose this option if you prefer.

We also have a large assortment of online resources and digital media, including streaming movies, e-books and audio books. (<https://fergusonlibrary.org/digital-resources-quick-reference/>). One of my new favorites is Press-Reader, with a great selection of newspapers and magazines (everything from The Smithsonian to the New York Post) in several different languages.

If you are a Stamford Public School student, you can request materials through our Linked Libraries program and we'll make sure the items are delivered to your school.

And for all ages, if you need help, you can chat with a librarian seven days a week. We also have a variety of virtual programs, everything from book discussions to CrimeCONN (a true treat for a mystery lovers). Missed one of our programs or are looking for interesting content? Please visit The Ferguson Library's YouTube channel: <http://www.youtube.com/c/TheFergusonLibrary>.

Alice Knapp, President

Support The Library's Annual Appeal

Your support of our end-of-year appeal helps us buy books in print and digital formats and offer important services like English language learning, technology training and job skills workshops. Now, more than ever, our community depends on the free services the Library provides.

Donate securely online at fergusonlibrary.org or look for a donation envelope in the mail. Thank you for supporting your public library!

Long-time Volunteer Makes Generous Gift to the Library

Ann Sexton, a long-time member of the Friends of The Ferguson Library and four-time president of the organization, has generously donated funds to update the Board Room at the Main Library.

In appreciation of her gift, the room will be renamed the Ann M. Sexton Board Room.

Ann has given so much of her time to the Library over the past thirty-six years, including running the Books for Babies program, which began in 1986 and still provides a book to every baby born in Stamford Hospital.

All of us at The Ferguson Library are hugely grateful to Ann for her generosity and commitment to the Library.

HOLIDAY HOURS

The Library will observe holiday hours Veterans Day, Wednesday, November 11. The Main Library and Harry Bennett Branch will close at 6 p.m. The South End Branch and Weed Memorial & Hollander Branch will be closed.

The Library will close at 5 p.m. on Wednesday, November 25 and all library facilities will be closed Thursday, November 26 for Thanksgiving. We will be open regular hours Friday, November 27 and the rest of the holiday weekend.

Teens Raise Money for Children's Services at the Library

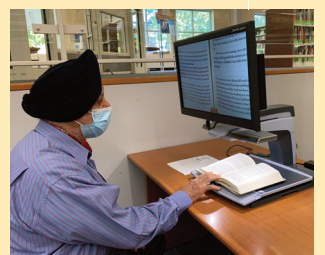

Stamford Teen Outreach Partners (S.T.O.P.), a group of Stamford high school students who offer free tutoring/mentoring to elementary school kids, has raised $1,400 to support the Library's youth services. Their goal is $2,000 by the end of November.

Visit their Go Fund Me page if you'd like to help at: <https://www.gofundme.com/f/stamfordteenoutreachpartnersfergusonfundraiser>. A big thank you to this great group of dedicated kids!

Optelec Reader at HB

The Harry Bennett Branch now has an Optelec ClearReader thanks to a generous donation. The equipment magnifies text or converts it to speech for people with vision disabilities. Just put your printed newspaper, book or document underneath the camera, push the "scan" button and the ClearReader starts reading. You can choose a male or female voice. If you need help, our staff is happy to assist.
